THE SUITEM HOUSE. STRIVE & SWEET, PROPRIETORS,

SAPONACEOUS SPRINGS, N. Y.

This hotel has been built and arranged for the special comfort and convenience of summer boarders. On arrival, each guest will be asked how he likes the situation, and if he says the hotel ought to have been placed upon the knoll, or further down toward the village, the lecation of the house will be immediately changed. Corner front rooms, up only one flight, for every guest. Batha, gas, water-closet, hot and cold water, laundry, telegraph, restaurant, fire-alarm, bar-room, daily paper, doupé, sewing machine, grand plane, a clergy-man, and all other modern conveniences in every room. Meals every minute if deaired, and consequently no second table. English, French and German dictionaries farmashed to every guest, to make up such a bill of fare as he may desire, without regard to the ball affair afterward in the office. Waiters of every nationality and color desired, Every waiter furnished with a libretic, button-hole bouques, full-dress suits, ball tablets and his bair parted in the middle. Every guest will have the best seat in the dinug-hall and the best waiter in the house.

Any guest will have the best seat in the dinug-hall and the best waiter in the house. Children will be welcomed with delight, and requested to bring hoop-sticks and hawkeys to bang the carved rosewood furniture especially provided for that purpose, and peg-tops to spin on the veivet carpet; and they will be allowed to bang on the piano at all hears, yell in the halls, side down the banisters, fall down stairs, carry away desert enough for a small family in their pockets at dinner, and make themselves as disagreeable as the fondest mother can desire.

Washing allowed in rooms, and ladies giving an order to "put me on a that iron," will be perioned as a disner, and make themselves as disagreeable as the fondest mother can desire.

Every lady will be considered the bells of the house, and call-boys will answer the bells promptly. Should any call-boy fall to appear at a guest's door with a pitcher of the water, more towels a gin cocktail, and pen ink and paper, before the guest's hand has left the bell-knob, will be branded "Front" on the torelead and imprisoned for life.

The effice clork has been carefully selected to please every-body, and can lead in prayer, play draw poker, match worsted at the vinage store, shake for drinks at any hour, day or might, play billiards, a good waitzer, and can dance the german, make a fourth at eacher, amuse children, is a good ladge of horses, as a railway and steamboat reference is far superior to Appleton's or anybody eises gande, will milt with any young lady, and not mind being cut dead when "pa comes down," don't mind being damined any more than a Connecticut river, can room forty people in the best room in the house when the lotel is full, attend to the annuncator, and answer questions in Greek. Hebrew, Choctaw, Irish or any other polite language at the same moment without turning a hair.

Dogs allowed in any room in the house including the withing room. Gentlemen can drink, smoke, swear, chew, gambie, stare at new arrivals, and indulge in any other innocent amusement common to watering places, in any part of the hotel. The landiord will always be happy to hear that some other hotel is "the best house in the country." Hepedial attention given to parties who can give informston as to "how these things are done in Yewrup." The proprietor will take it as a personal affront if any guest on leaving should fall to dispute his bill, tell him that he is a swinder, his house a barn, his table wretched, his wince vile, and that he, the guest, was never so imposed upon in his life, will never stop there again, and means to warn his friends.
